

Annex to the BAFRA Terms & Conditions

The BAFRA Terms and Conditions can be found in the BAFA Rule Book. This page constitutes the annex to them.

Fees and expenses

All charges are per match (or equivalent) and based on the match's category. See the BAFRA Terms and Conditions in the rulebook for an explanation of the category code system.

Category	Officials' Fees (Grade Q/Qualified)	Officials' Fees (Grade C/Associate)	BAFRA Admin Fee
SL, SP, SI, SF, UL, UP, UI, UF, AL, AP, AI, AF, OL, OP, OI, OF	£40 per man	£25 per man	£60*
YL, YP, YI, YF FL, FP, FI, FF	£40 per man	£25 per man	£30*

* The administration fee is subject to the following adjustments:

- it is halved for single games (but not multi-game tournaments) played on any day of the week other than a Sunday;
- it is waived for any I or F category game of which BAFRA is given at least 28 days notice (denoted by the suffix A after the category code (e.g. SI-A));
- it is waived for one of the games in a double-header (i.e. two games at the same venue covered by the same officials) - where the admin fees for the two games are different, the lower fee will be waived.

For games off the British mainland (e.g. Channel Islands) or elsewhere where the officials will be subjected to long journeys, special rates are subject to negotiation. This is denoted by the suffix S after the category code (e.g. SL-S).

Where officials are required for a multi-game tournament, a fee will be agreed that will reflect an official's time commitment pro rata to that for a normal single game (i.e. 2½-3 hours). Normally, only a single admin fee will be charged regardless of the number of games at a single location.

Officials travel expenses will be paid by BAFRA, normally at 20p per mile over 100 miles (round trip). If travelling by public transport, the relevant fare will be paid, after deducting the first £10.

Games organised by home management that is not associated with a recognised BAFA league are not given Category A status.

The above fees and expenses apply to games on or after 1st April 2007.

Normal crew size

The normal number of officials assigned to a team is set according to the team's league/division. If a team or league asks for additional officials above the normal number on a crew they are charged pro rata.

League	Regular season games	Playoff games	Bowl games
Elite games	7	7	7
BAFL Premier	4	5	7
BAFL Div 1	4	5	7
BAFL Div 2	4	5	7
BYAFA YKL	4	5	5
BYAFA JKL	4	5	5
BCAFL	4	5	7

The size of crews assigned for International category fixtures will normally be at least the same size as for a corresponding playoff game but may be larger according to the importance of the game.

Where a league or playoff game is designated as an "elite" game, game management will only be charged for the normal number of officials for the game – BAFRA will pay the excess.

All teams are currently in guarantee category Gamma - i.e. no guarantee. See the Terms and Conditions in the rulebook if you need an explanation of this.
